WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Our Speaking Course helps learners to develop their spoken fluency and accuracy in English. This course is suitable for those looking to gain confidence in speaking English and become effective communicators. All-level learners are given language input as well as the opportunity to practise their speaking skills with both their teacher and other students.

Lower Level (A1-A2)	Using real language and authentic examples, this course helps students to speak clear English that everyone will understand. Topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Food and drink• Meeting new people• Agreeing and disagreeing
Mid Level (B1-B1+)	Students will become more confident and fluent English speakers by building communication tools and key phrases for conversation. Topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Travel• Relationships• Making suggestions
Higher Level (B2-C1)	At this level, students will learn better vocabulary and communication skills to speak English fluently. Topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Negotiating and persuading• Culture and identity• Giving presentations

The three levels can be taken as a comprehensive speaking programme or combined with our General English course. Discussions, role-plays, and presentations form a dynamic and communicative set of lessons that motivates students to use English both inside and outside the classroom.

Pronunciation and functional language give students the skills they need to feel confident speaking in English in their daily life and work setting. Essential vocabulary and language structures form the framework towards the ultimate goal for learners to practise their English in a comfortable and supportive environment.
